Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant Jason S. Swartz's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Swartz has devoted over 20 years of his life to the service of this state and country as an enlisted soldier and a member of the non-commissioned officer corps including service in Iraq and many state activations in support of winter and flood operations; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Swartz continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant Jason S. Swartz for over 20 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 8, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

SERGEANT JASON S. SWARTZ DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State
